The Artist

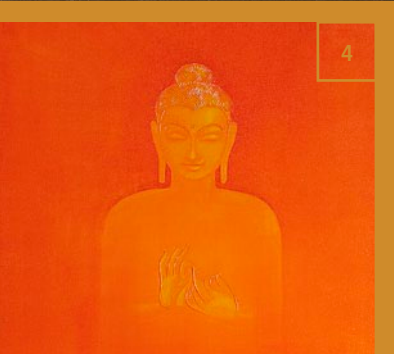

Sangeeta Abhay, born into the lap of art and culture in Buldana, Maharashtra – a quaint town situated against the backdrop of the unparalleled Ajanta caves, has been deeply enamoured by the teachings of the Buddha. She progressed to give vent to her creativity by and organised solo exhibitions in the US, Indonesia, and different parts of India.

The Art

Her paintings are unique and the subject, universal and timeless. Her works primarily consist of Oils on canvas. Some are embellished with gold leaf overlays.
